Relation to IPAA: Chair

Current position: Professor of Development Economics and Deputy Rector for Research Affairs, both at ISS

Short CV: Prior to joining ISS in 1999, I held positions at the University of Bonn (1998-99) and Columbia University (1996-98). In 2013-2014 I was visiting professor at Georgetown University's campus in Doha. My research focuses on labour and human resource economics in developing countries. My work has been published in several international economics and development studies journals including European Economic Review, Journal of Law and Economics, Journal of Development Economics, Economic Development and Cultural Change, Health Economics, Journal of Development Studies, Applied Economics, Labour Economics, Economics of Transition, Economics of Education Review and World Development.

Aspirations for IPAA: I think of IPAA as a forum to connect, inspire and motivate. To connect and reconnect our PhD alumni with ISS and with the current crop of PhD researchers. For our PhD alumni and ISS to mutually inspire and rejuvenate each other through conversations, ideas, experiences and stories.
